BURIED A LIVE.

ONE HUNDRED MINERS BURIED ALIVE IN A MINE.

Sixty Bodies Already Recovered—Mine No. 6.

Where the Explosion Occurred Completely Wrecked Great Excitement.

Mine Explosion.

KANSAS CITY, March 29.—An explosion in mine No. 6, at Rich Hill, Mo., at 4 o'clock this afternoon, buried 100 miners. Forty dead bodies have already been taken out.

THE RICH HILL EXPLOSION.

KANSAS CITY, March 29.—The following dispatch has just been received from Rich Hill: "About four o'clock, this afternoon, there was a rumbling sound in mine No. 6, at this place, and a moment afterward a fearful explosion that entirely wrecked the mine and buried in the debris over a hundred miners, who were cut off from all means of escape." Up to the hour of sending this dispatch, forty dead bodies have been taken out, and at least fifteen more are expected to have met a similar fate. The superintendent of the mine was taken out badly injured, but will survive. In the terrible excitement and confusion it is impossible to give a list of the names, or even an estimate as to the full extent of the disaster, but it is now thought that over fifty men were killed.

LATER.—Another dispatch from Rich Hill, is to the effect that the mine is situated six miles distant from the town. There were two explosions, and it is said, the total loss of life will reach sixty men. Rich Hill is located in Bates county, about 65 miles south of Kansas City on the Missouri Pacific railroad. It is in the center of the coal-bearing district.

BRUCEVILLE.

Died of Hydrophobia—Taylor Improving Special Dispatch to The Examiner.

BRUCEVILLE, March 29.—Martin Robinson died at 7:30 this evening. It was a clear case of hydrophobia. He was bitten Feb. 9, by a mad dog. Last Monday he began to show symptoms of rabies, from that time every symptom has tallied with those laid down in the medical works. He was perfectly rational to the time of his death at 2 p. m. He asked them to tie him for fear he would lose control of himself, and up to the moment of his death would tell them what to do, to hold his head assuring them he could control himself and would not hurt them. He died at the house of his uncle, Dr. McCarty.

The young man Taylor shot at Mrs. Lillies farm the other day is improving, and is not now considered dangerous.

Failures in the Cotton Trade.

NEW YORK, March 29.—The cotton market receded another set back today. The failure of B. J. Gardner, a scaler upon the floor of the exchange, was announced today. The market opened at an advance of 5 to 8 points over Monday's closing, and after a further gain of a few points became decidedly weak, and upon the announcement of Gardner's suspension declined 5 points. Some years ago Mr. Gardner was quite prominent upon the exchange, but of late years he has been looked upon as a small operator. He is not supposed to have been carrying over a half dozen contracts, and his liabilities are consequently thought to be very small.

The suspension of J. W. Harle, to whose failure to respond to his margin calls most of the recent failures in the exchange were attributed, was officially postponed in the cotton exchange today.

To Co-operate.

VIENNA, March 29.—Political correspondence says that Karasloff, a Bulgarian political leader, has received instructions from St. Petersburg, to co-operate with M. Zankoff as the first step in the plan for the removal of Prince Ferdinand from the Bulgarian throne.

Good Friday.

NEW YORK, March, 29.—The exchanges in this city will be closed tomorrow. Cotton and coffee exchanges will be closed on Saturday also.

Danger Signals.

CONTINUAL use has made Simmons' Liver Regulator widely popular. In order to make money from the great reputation gained from this remedy unscrupulous adventurers have gotten up cheap counterfeits, dangerous to health, and stick on these frauds a name closely resembling the genuine, to deceive the unwary into buying their inferior goods.

FERNANDEZ, Nassau Co., Fla. "I have always used Dr. Simmons' Liver Regulator and always found it to do what is claimed for it. The last bottle and two packages did me no good, and were worse than nothing. I see it is not put up by J. H. Zettin & Co., is not genuine and a waste of money to buy it. I would be glad to get the pure and genuine. Send me some from honest hands (with red Z and Zettin & Co.'s signature on the wrapper.) This filthy stuff sold will injure some one badly."

BRYAN, T. Rich "None genuine except with the Z Stamp in red on front of wrapper, and the Seal and Signature of J. H. Zettin & Co. on the side."
